Few people can be happy unless they hate some other person, nation, or creed.

President's Message

What does the Fellowship mean to you? Is it the place you can come to hear other people's opinion? Is it the people who are there for you when you need help? Is it the place to come to learn new things about other religions and other countries? Is it a place to have fun? For whatever reason you come every week, remember that we need to pay the rent, and the electric, etc. The play that Jeff Harper wrote and that the talented actors presented to us at the annual dinner last month was a reminder that we need money to survive. So pledge what you can because the person you are doing it for is yourself.

"Making Ethical Decisions"

Do Ethics and Morality differ? How should we go about making ethical decisions? How do ethical theories fit into practical applications? What role, if any, should religion play? Robert P. Tucker, Ph.D., Minister Emeritus of the U.U. Congregation of Lakeland and former professor of Religion, Philosophy, Logic and Ethics will address these and related issues in this workshop that will give attendees hands-on experience dealing with ethical decision-making. It promises to be both insightful and fun. Don't miss it!

Drinks and lunch will be provided.

Registration fee is $20.00 per person, payable at the door. Call (727) 526-9837 by March 22, and leave a message if you plan to attend.

UUUF

Unitarian Universalism is an inner-directed faith, building values and standards from within outward, creating an internal fortress for survival. It helps people face more realistically the issues of life, struggle, despair and defeat.
At the same time it encourages greater joy, through freedom from fear, in living a rich, full life on this earth, which is all the Heaven (and Hell) it promises.

George Marshall
