And the Common Man, he must love God ---
He made so many of Him.

President’s Message

The most important thing I have to say since the Board honored me with my new position is to say THANK YOU to Liz Dudash for her service as president last year and as Board member for so many years. I hope she enjoyed her time on the Board as much as the Board enjoyed her being a part of it.

As we watch the oil head toward our beaches and the storms churning around in the Atlantic and Gulf, welcome guests and go traveling ourselves, the Fellowship will continue to have our great programs every Sunday and the air conditioning still works well.

Margaret Evans

Welcome to our newest member, Gail Dold. And, congratulations to Marianne Foley who received her chalice June 13th.

Every cradle asks us, “Whence?” and every coffin, “Whither?” The poor barbarian, weeping above his dead, can answer these questions as intelligently as the robed priest of the most authentic creed.

Robert G. Ingersoll

We, too, have our religion, and it is this: Help for the living, hope for the dead.

Robert G. Ingersoll

Truth is more of a stranger than fiction.

Mark Twain
