President's Message

Let's all express our outrage and horror! Oh, no. Some Imam wants to build a mosque on the sacred ground (near) "GROUND ZERO".

Well, maybe it's fairly nearby and maybe it's not a mosque. Maybe it's a cultural center for Sufis (the least pugnacious muslims around, if you don't consider the Baha'i's muslim roots.) But let's all get outraged that any kind of muslims dare to build near the new commercial complex which will replace The World Trade Center. I'm sure there will be a tasteful memorial garden or plaque to commemorate the lives lost.

Slightly closer than the planned cultural center is a deli and a couple of felafel stands. There's also off-track betting, camping equipment, dolls, lingerie, hair restoration and, not much farther, you can go to a strip club or get your fountain pen repaired. It's a commercial area with many diverse businesses. I'm impressed that any religious organization can afford to build there.

My outrage is that so few people seem to understand that in the United States ALL religions have an equal right to exist, build their buildings and hold their services. It's guaranteed by the Constitution. I hope we can survive this hysteria without losing our basic freedoms, but the religious fundamentalists of all persuasions don't seem to understand that religious freedom is for everyone even if they don't agree with them.
