President's Message

My Last Message:

I planned to offer another tirade on an important subject for the "President's Message" this month, but instead I'd rather just say thank you.

It's been the usual wonderful year at the Fellowship. I deeply regret the loss of some members. I'm delighted to welcome new members. I'm glad we've made a real start on religious education for our swarm of 6 and 7 year olds.

As president I take little credit for anything we've accomplished this past year, so thank YOU. Thank you to everyone who did a program or led a discussion. Thank you to everyone who brought refreshments or ate them or cleaned the crumbs off the table or carried out the trash. Thank you to potluck hosts and party planners, cooks and bakers. Thank you to pledgers and casual contributors (may their tribe increase.) Thank you to everyone who spent time teaching our children. Thank you to Andrew, Liam, and Patrick for being the children. And to Marianne for being the teenager.

Thank you to everyone who made our meetings meaningful, joyful, and fun.

I look forward to another great year with our new president in July.
