Why attack God? He may be as miserable as we are.

President's Message

You may have noticed that there are changes in the Fellowship now that it's truly Summer.

There are a lot of empty chairs some Sundays as people go to visit new babies, attend weddings and other family events and sometimes just go somewhere to relax. But remember a couple of months ago when we barely had enough chairs for everyone – then we were uncomfortably full and the air conditioning had a hard time keeping up even when the weather was comfortable outside.
We have a lot of new members (over 20% of our members joined this year) and when winter comes and everyone comes home to Florida it will be even more crowded than it was last winter. So, we need to start thinking about how to find a new, larger meeting place.
We took a chance and decided about 10 years ago to use all our savings to rent our own space and we now have more members and more savings than we had then.

Is it time to take advantage of the plummeting real estate market to rent or (gasp) buy a bigger home? Maybe, maybe not, but let's talk about it.

There is no kind of dishonesty into which otherwise good people more easily and frequently fall than that of defrauding the government.
